

SAN DIEGO MESA COLLEGE

Students who enter the ASL Studies Program in Fall semesters with no or minimal ASL skills are recommended to take these following classes.

YEAR 1 (ASL Studies classes)	Fall *AMSL 115–ASL 1 and AMSL 115L *(AMSL 150)	Spring *AMSL 116–ASL 2 and AMSL 116L *(AMSL 155)
YEAR 2 (ASL Studies classes)	*AMSL 215–ASL 3 and AMSL 215L *(AMSL 214)	*AMSL 216–ASL 4 and AMSL 216L *(AMSL 225)

List of ASL Courses we offer during Fall and Spring Semesters

YEAR 1 (ASL Studies classes)	Fall *AMSL 115–ASL 1 and AMSL 115L *AMSL 116–ASL 2 and AMSL 116L *(AMSL 150) *(AMSL 155)	Spring *AMSL 115–ASL 1 and AMSL 115L *AMSL 116–ASL 2 and AMSL 116L *(AMSL 150) *(AMSL 155)
YEAR 2 (ASL Studies classes)	*AMSL 215–ASL 3 and AMSL 215L *AMSL 216–ASL 4 and AMSL 216L *(AMSL 150) *(AMSL 155) *(AMSL 214) *(AMSL 225)	*AMSL 215–ASL 3 and AMSL 215L *AMSL 216–ASL 4 and AMSL 216L *(AMSL 150) *(AMSL 155) *(AMSL 214)

*Required for ASL Studies major

Required for American Sign Language-English Interpretation major

Students who have completed the ASL Studies Program are prepared to enter the ASL-English Interpretation program listed below

YEAR 1 (Interpretation classes)	Fall AMSL 230 AMSL 235	Spring AMSL 240 AMSL 245
YEAR 2 (Interpretation classes)	Fall AMSL 250 AMSL 255	Spring AMSL 276

Interpreter Certification from RID: To sit for the national performance evaluation, all Hearing individuals must have an AA as of July 1, 2009; BA will be required starting July 1, 2012. (Deaf interpreters must have an AA as of July 1, 2012 and a BA as of July 1, 2016.)

- ASL courses are available at most of the local community colleges; ASL-English Interpretation is only available at Mesa College and Palomar College